

ENGAGEMENT SERIES

RISK MITIGATION STRATEGIES IN REAL ESTATE INVESTMENT

Navigating the real estate investment landscape

27 September 2024 (Friday)
2.30pm – 5.30pm

Investing always involves some risks, and real estate is no different. Like any other ventures, real estate investment entails several risks such as financial, liquidity, market, legal, property management and more recently and importantly, climate risk.

In this session, experts will provide a comprehensive overview of real estate investment risks and discuss these risks, offering an understanding of how to manage and navigate the real estate investment landscape in Singapore.

Additionally, the session will cover the current market trends and outlook as well as explore the risks associated with the several avenues for real estate investment, including direct property acquisitions, purchasing shares in a Special Purpose Vehicle (SPV) that owns the property, or investing in en blocs in Singapore.

sector, with accumulated experience dated from 1991. He leads Cushman & Wakefield's APAC practice group for Logistics & Industrial, where he connects and drives collaboration within the industrial teams across the region to capture business opportunities in the market, encompassing distribution centres, data centres, cold storage, and warehouse facilities.

Dennis is well-versed in real estate investment trusts (REITs) and is actively involved in advising corporations on matters pertaining to REITs, as well as the transaction of properties to property funds and trust. Over the years, he has built up an impressive network of clients who would engage him and his team for sound real estate advice. Based in Singapore, Dennis has also established a strong media and industry profile, having been regularly quoted in real estate media articles and presented at many industry events. Prior to leading Investor Services for Asia Pacific, he was Cushman & Wakefield's Chief Executive for Singapore and Southeast Asia, working closely with a team of corporate real estate professionals to steer the firm's growth in the region.

Mr Yong Kun Tong
Director, Sustainability
Cushman & Wakefield

Yong Kun is an engineering professional with over 10 years of experience in industrial operations, focusing on engineering reliability and sustainability. He has played a key role in performing physical climate risk screenings and assessing climate adaptation measures to strengthen resilience across various sectors.

By evaluating existing strategies and identifying opportunities for improvement, Yong Kun helps develop resilience indicators that address the impacts of climate change on buildings, tenants, and surrounding communities. He works on creating adaptation plans with cost estimates and timelines to ensure organizations can effectively manage high-risk areas and improve their climate resilience.
